

Dear parents and grandparents. Thank-you for looking at this!

Littlest Kids: talk about what they are thankful for about their mums and grandmas, colour and craft.

Good day, everyone!

Daily Life Questions

Are you going to do something special for your mom or grandma today?

Does your mom know any good jokes? What is one?

What is something you love about your mum?

Do you think God was so delighted when he made your mom? Do you think he keeps going back to her, and gazing on her, smiling and saying, "I made her, how wonderful".

Do you, after you have made something, maybe colored a picture, or built something, go back and admire it, over and over again?

God looks on your mum and is just overjoyed.

We just finished seeding peas, it was only one field, what have you been doing lately?

It is nice to have a pea field. Then in summer you can just stop by and eat all the fresh peas you want. Even pick a container full for later!

Trinity Thinking

Imagine three persons, God the father, Jesus the son, and the holy spirit. They all are different in what they do, yet they are one. In the trinity there are more than can be one, yet they are so one in each other, they cannot be divided.

Imagine you have had a very good friend, parent or employer. You know each other well, yet you are separate people. You know what the other is thinking. You don't have to ask to help them do something, you just do it. No one ever says I am the boss, I am in charge of this or that. There is no fighting for power. There is no rejection. It is one long "After you. No, after you. No after you." That is a little glimpse into the perfect companionship that is in the trinity. And it is what we were made for in all our relationships.

Thinking about God's Kingdom, which is here right now, and available.

Do: Guys, let's touch our toes!

Imagine a hula hoop. Everything you are responsible is in that hula hoop, that is your kingdom.

Ask: What do you have responsibility over?

Some ideas:

My words to my sister or brother, what I do with my time, how much sleep I get, my red fire truck, my tablet.

Do: Touch your toes to the right! (Did you just take out someone?)

You can take everything you are in charge of, into God's joyous kingdom; it is here right now, it is invisible, and it is closer than the air. We were made to do life with God. This includes thoughts. Experiment with inviting Jesus into everything you do. Try it. He won't be offended. He loves being with you.

What will you invite him into?

What this week would be better done with God?

We can be in conversation with God about what he and I are doing together, that is what prayer is.

Pray: Pray together. Prayer is just talking to God about what you and he are doing together. There may be a lot of asking.

Mother's Day!!!

This is a day we get to celebrate your mom! Grandma's must be included in this! Break out the crystal and the fine china!!

Ask these questions and let everyone answer.

Aren't you glad you are alive?

Don't you love smelling the spring air?

Seeing the grass turn green, and the trees budding out?

Don't you love hearing baby chicks and feeding them worms?

Do you enjoy a good ice cream?

Do you like driving fast things like bikes and quads and one day a car?

Do you love watching the clouds and seeing their shadow roll across the ground?

Do you like eating?

Do you like it when you are read stories?

Do you like candy?

THIS WAS BROUGHT TO YOU BY YOUR MOTHER!!!!!!!

Today give her a giant hug.

Think how to speak to her heart. Then do something for her in that way.

Think of her, of the good things. Keep those good things before you every day.

God's trinity is a vision of what our relationship to our parents could have been like.

I know there can be really hard times between you and your mum.

You may disagree on a great many things with your mom, or grandma.

Ephesians 6:2

Honor your father and your mother.

This means to be thankful for their existence. To be respectful of how they gave you life. Are you thankful you get to live?

How are your skills coming along with find verses in the bible?

Bible Challenge:

Find Ephesians 6:2

What is the promise that comes after this verse?

Activity

- Materials: the great outdoors, paper, markers, crayons, glue, tape.
- Go outside and collect flowers, leaves, buds, grass for your mum with the new life that is growing outside. Do we have any dandelions yet?
- Take a paper and fold it into a card.
- Make cards for your mum and for your grandmas. Decorate the cards.

- Write something you love about the person in the card.
- Glue or tape some of the things you found outside to the card. I found some scilla, a bit past prime.

Honour
your mother and your father.
